FIRST-PLACE WARRIORS HOST SIR GEORGE, BISHOP'S

Loyola's Hockey Warriors return home this weekend to host cross-town rival Sir George Williams Georgians on Friday night at 7:30p.m. and Bishop's Gaiters on Saturday afternoon at 2p.m. Both games will be played at the Loyola rink.

The ice Warriors extended their undefeated record in league play to 5-0-0 with victories over the Sherbrooke Vert et Or (6-3) and Bishop's University Gaiters (4-2) this past weekend. Besides holding a firm grip on first place in the Q.U.A.A., the Warriors boast a 9-1-1 overall record with the sole loss coming at the hands of the St. Francis Xaxier X-Men during a four game pre-season tour of the Maritimes.

From their performance on Friday night it looks like Bishop's will fight it out with Sir George and Loyola for the top spot in the Q.U.A.A. The Gaiters normally start slowly with many of their football players taking some time to adjust to the skating game.

The Sir George and Bishop's contests mark the end of league play for the Warriors until January.

BASKETBALLERS HOST MCGILL

The Loyola Cage Warriors will host the McGill Redmen Thursday night, November 29th at 8p.m. at the Loyola Athletic Complex.

This will be the second important Q.U.A.A. contest this week for the Warriors- they meet the powerful Sir George Georgians earlier this week. Last year the Warriors captured the league title with an undefeated 21-0 mark.

The Redmen boast the biggest front line in Canadian College Basketball with 6'10" Kit Kennard, 6'8" high scorer George Peredy and 6'4" John Derby.
